

Terms and Conditions

These terms and conditions apply to the Wide Angle Photography Contest 2019 ("competition").

These terms and conditions together with any specific rules set out at www.oup.com/elt/wide-angle-contest comprise the rules of the competition.

By entering this competition the entrant will be deemed to have read and understood these rules and instructions and agreed to be bound by them.

This competition is organized and administered by Oxford University Press, Great Clarendon Street, Oxford, OX2 6DP, England.

This competition is in no way sponsored, endorsed, administered by, or associated with, Facebook, Twitter or any other third party.

Entry Rules

1. Entrants must be English language teachers or students over the age of 18 (by closing date - November 4, 2019).
2. Only one entry per named entrant will be accepted. No group entries will be accepted.
3. All entries must be the original work of the entrant and must not have been entered in any other competition or published in any publication or website.
4. To enter the competition the entrant must complete the entry form at www.oup.com/elt/wide-angle-contest and submit it along with the photograph and written story which comply with the competition brief.
5. All entries must be received by Oxford University Press by 11.59pm GMT on November 4, 2019.
6. Any entry which is incomplete, illegible, late, otherwise does not comply with the rules may be deemed invalid at the sole discretion of OUP.
7. Proof of dispatch of an entry in any medium cannot be accepted as proof of delivery. OUP cannot accept responsibility for any error, omission, interruption, deletion, defect, delay in operation or transmission, communications line failure, theft, destruction, alteration of, or unauthorised access to entries, or entries lost or delayed whether or not arising during operation or transmission as a result of server functions, virus, bugs or other causes outside its control.
8. Any entry that OUP considers in its sole discretion to include content that is inappropriate will be disqualified. Inappropriate content may include (but is not limited to) depictions of drug abuse, violence and pornography.

PHOTOGRAPHY CONTEST

9. In the event of any dispute regarding the competition, the decision of OUP shall be final and no correspondence or discussion shall be entered into.
10. OUP reserves the right to disqualify an entrant if in its sole discretion it suspects they are in breach of any of these terms and conditions.
11. The competition is not open to employees of Oxford University Press, its distributors, agents and licensees, their families or other persons connected with the competition, or public officials, working at any Ministry of Education or similar government institution.
12. OUP may withdraw or cancel the competition for any reason and at any time and may change the prize to a prize of a similar value. There is no cash alternative. OUP is under no obligation to offer refunds, but may do so at its sole discretion.
13. OUP reserves the right to amend these terms and conditions without prior notice. Any changes will be posted at www.oup.com/elt/wide-angle-contest.
14. Entrants must not put themselves or others at risk when taking part in this competition.
15. Vote rigging, bots and other unfair voting are prohibited. Any entry the judges or OUP suspect to have received any rigged votes will be immediately disqualified.

The Photograph

1. Photographs must be submitted in the form of a .jpeg or .png, and in the highest quality resolution possible, the maximum file size is 50 megabytes.
